Continued Examination Under 37 CFR 1.114

A request for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, including the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e), was filed in this application after allowance or after an Office action under Ex Parte Quayle, 25 USPQ 74, 453 O.G. 213 (Comm'r Pat. 1935). Since this application is eligible for continued examination under 37 CFR 1.114, and the fee set forth in 37 CFR 1.17(e) has been timely paid, prosecution in this application has been reopened pursuant to 37 CFR 1.114. Applicant's submission filed on 1/20/2010 has been entered.

REASONS FOR ALLOWANCE

The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance: The IDS filed 1/20/2010 has been reviewed. The prior art of record does not disclose nor suggest all of the limitations of the allowed claims. For example, Chu et al does not disclose nor suggest the limitations "first layer ..between the second layer and the substrate..." nor "first structure ...a bond pad...second structure...contact lines...", among other limitations of the allowed claims. The references cited in the Notice of References cited are considered relevant to applicant's disclosure. Sherrer et al (US 6,627,096) discloses a post 26 and metal patterns 38(Fig. 6a and 6c and col. 4, lines 40-50); however, layer formed by 38 is not under 26, so that the limitation "first layer between the second layer and the substrate" is not satisfied, among other limitations of the allowed claims.

Weiling et al (US 2009/0176322) shows in Fig. 10 that the patterns of different widths are formed from the same layer and are at the same level, so that this same limitation is not satisfied, among other limitations of the allowed claims. Omura et al (US 2009/0163030) is not prior art and shows in Fig. 11 wider and narrower lines. Layer 7 is amorphous silicon, and layer 3 is SiN(paragraph 0034).

Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Caridad M. Everhart whose telephone number is 571-272-1892. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday through Fridays 7:30-4:00.

If attempts to reach the examiner by telephone are unsuccessful, the examiner's supervisor, D. Richards can be reached on 571-272-1736. The fax phone number for the organization where this application or proceeding is assigned is 571-273-8300.
